

Publish your article Open Access

Through your institution's Read and Publish agreement with Cambridge University Press, you are eligible to make your article Open Access (OA).

If you have already completed and returned an author publishing agreement (licence to publish form), simply use the form below to select the creative commons licence under which you would like your article to be published and return to OAqueries@cambridge.org. This will instruct Cambridge University Press to make your article available via OA.

As the corresponding author, you must have full authority to execute this form on behalf of any co-authors. Once completed, this will function as an addendum to the original author publishing agreement for your article, to the extent of updating the publishing format referenced in that agreement. All other terms of your original author publishing agreement, including warranties, will remain unchanged and in force.

If you do not wish for your article to be published OA, do not complete this form. Your article will continue to be published on the basis and in the format described in your original author publishing agreement.

If you have any questions, please email OAqueries@cambridge.org.
